MetaPrivacy offers a flexible and customisable approach to compliance. With an intuitive interface, it empowers end users to take ownership of compliance processes, ultimately saving valuable time and reducing the workload on your Information Governance and Security functions. MetaPrivacy aims to make compliance more accessible and efficient for your organisation to comply with data protection regulations.

Privacy Management Made Painless

User Friendly Privacy Platform

With a highly intuitive interface, our solution simplifies the complex landscape of compliance and privacy management.

Demonstrate GDPR and Privacy Compliance to your Regulatory Bodies

Effortlessly export the required documentation to demonstrate adherence to GDPR and other privacy regulations with a centralised view of your compliance efforts.

Identify, Manage and Mitigate Risk with a Risk Register

Prioritise and proactively identify potential risks in your data processing activities.

Template Library

Use our library of pre-built privacy templates for processing activities, DPIAs and third party risk management. Customise these existing templates or simply start from scratch to cater to your unique privacy needs.

Customisation

Customise privacy assessment questions and guidance prompts with simple language, ensuring they are easily understood and accessible for users at any expertise level. Adapt privacy activities to specific terminology and customise the module to meet your organisation's unique requirements.

Flexibility

Segment and customise privacy programs depending on the nature of the data and your end user requirements.

Centralised Compliance

House all organisational policies and privacy assessments in one place, streamlining the compliance process and centralising compliance efforts.

Accelerate Your Review Process with a Risk and Task Register

Proactively identify and mitigate security and privacy risks more efficiently, saving time and enhancing your risk management processes.

Covert Spreadsheets into Privacy Assessments

Effortlessly import time intensive spreadsheets and covert them into interactive privacy assessments, ensuring a seamless experience for your end users.

Save Time and Resources

Say good bye to spreadsheets, streamline your data processing activities and reduce time-consuming administrative work with a centralised privacy management system.
