

[CYBER POLICE]

AI Spear Phishing

Trust No One at First Click

Cyber criminals can now use Artificial Intelligence to mimic email styles and replicate internal communications, making their messages almost impossible to spot.

- Always verify unexpected emails or requests, especially those including links or involving financial transactions.
- Check email addresses carefully - don't trust the display name alone.
- Report suspicious emails immediately.

If it feels urgent, double check before you click!